Suffering in the Mu'tazilite Theology

Older persons are often portrayed as social and financial burdens because pensions, health and social care have to withstand increasing old age dependency ratios. Due to a lack of access to representation or a lack of social and economic power, older people have found few opportunities to have their voices heard, making age an immensely political issue. Written by an impressive team of authors, this book provides an in-depth analysis of the experience of ageing in Singapore examining key issues such as health, work, housing, family ties and care giving. It looks at how social categorization enters into everyday life to elucidate the multiple meanings of age and identity encountered in a rapidly changing economy and society. Providing original critical discourse from Asian writers recording Asian voices, Ageing in Singapore will appeal to a wide readership and is an invaluable resource for policy makers, service practitioners and scholars working on Asian gerontology.

Charging System Troubleshooting

Rarely has 'migration literature' been understood as 'literature on the topic of migration', which is an approach this book adopts by presenting a comparative analysis of contemporary texts on experiences of migration.

Answers to Questions

Starting with risks and safety, the book continues with cables, wiring, circuit breakers, grounding, lighting, air coolers, heaters, back-up power, solar power, substations, communication cabling, etc. A chapter is included on the modern issues of saving energy and the environment. Electrical services for buildings is more than just about wiring of buildings. It is about having a deeper appreciation of engineering issues and keeping pace with problems and solutions in a rapidly changing world.

Information and problems related to fossil fuels and the environment are described in this all-inclusive book. Geopolitics has been continuously shaped by fossil fuel and even today, the world is facing an energy crisis. As a result, the world is witnessing a shift towards alternate, profitable methods of energy production like wind-turbines which are rapidly increasing in number in US and Europe, while solar power and bio-fuels are getting world recognition. This book encompasses topics ranging from specific ones like fuel combustion and coexistence with renewable energy to basics like environment, economics of energy and food security. The book is not an elaborative scientific work, but the research and analysis of the subject with a general view point make it a comfortable read for anyone who wants to gain insight on the subject.

Religious Dynamics under the Impact of Imperialism and Colonialism
